WHO & WHAT THE REAL ENEMY OF HUMANTY IS

The enemy of humanity has remained the same since the dawn of civilization and although the names that identify, classify and expose them have changed throughout history, their habits, preferences and desires reveal them for the monsters they are. You see they obsess to possess and control everything and everyone. They are all about personal and materialistic gain.

They are sadistic, cruel, methodical and tactical, personifying evil in its purest form. They have always chosen personal gain and sadistic control over everything, destroying countless lives as well as the environments and very ecosystems which sustain us all. They are the actual real monsters in disguise that parents tell their children do not exist to prevent their young minds from developing poorly under the influence of fear. They look like everyone else and it is desperately vital that you know how to discern the difference.

They exist within every nation, country, state, city and region of the world. They exist among every tribe, race, sex, age, discipline, profession, religion, denomination, organization and position from the highest positions and titles in the land to the lowest and least expected. Throughout history they have been called the wolves amidst the sheep, the tares amidst the wheat, devils and demons, witches and warlocks, wizards, sorcerers, alchemists and Jinn.

In today's times they are the predators and predatory profiteers also known as the psychopaths and sociopaths among us who have always, slowly but surely, increased in numbers and slithered their way into political positions of power and authority to undermine, corrupt and distort truth, education, health, history, morality, ethics, logic, liberty and justice.

Their tactics have remained the same and continue to work because each successive generation forgets the obstacles their forefathers had to overcome and the sacrifices they had to make in order to take back what had been stolen from humanity.

The tactics of these predators and predatory profiteering psychopaths and sociopaths have always been and continue to be accomplished by the age old divide and conquer method and they do this by devising superficial divisions in order to keep the masses debating, arguing, fighting and warring amongst themselves so that they are kept perpetually distracted with simple, complex, newly developed and ever changing forms of propaganda, disinformation, misinformation, poverty, illnesses, addictions and outright lies.

You need to know that they are a race unto themselves that exists among the human race itself. Look harder at history and think deeper. What we are led to believe is multiple races within the human race is part of the way they camouflage themselves. Red, yellow black and white are all a superficial made up lie! These are simply the covers of our books and these monsters have conditioned, programmed, indoctrinated and brain washed us to such tremendous extents that we are unable to even acknowledge their very existence.

To stop them we must all stand together and accept that although the inexperience of our youth and the absence and withdraw of our elder connection may have rendered us naïve and vulnerable we no longer have to be deceived, manipulated and victimized by them and we must stand, rally and fight against the nature of these beasts and since their nature is encompassed in being predators and predatory profiteers, we must all come together and fight ferociously against predatory and predatory profiteering behaviors, acts and actions.

If we can do this together, if we can stand and protest against predatory and predatory profiteering behaviors, then they will know that we know and they will be forced out of the places of power, authority, control and influence which they slithered their way into and those who lurk among us in our own communities and neighborhoods will know they no longer can hide or camouflage themselves.

Remember this, when the qualities and attributes that make one human are absent, then they are not human. They are also referred to as 'beasts' as well as 'mimics'. They are absent of the humanistic attributes and qualities such as love, caring, compassion, empathy, sympathy and logical reasoning. They exist upon impulse, instinct and the fight or flight response of the reptilian brain.

They are known as beasts because they have a truly savage and cruel nature. They are known as mimics because they study human emotions and emotional responses so they can pretend to have them but in fact they cannot, do not and are not capable of them.

Every true practicing human being has dreamed of an all inclusive world where we can be a part of something greater than ourselves, where we can make a truly significant difference, a world of peace that we can freely share, explore and learn in and about without the fear of harm or injury to ourselves or the ones we love.

The progression of humanity has become stagnant and is not occurring because it is being withheld from us by evil individuals who continuously try to indoctrinate and convince us that good cannot exist without evil, that you must be faced with the horrors of death and war in order to appreciate life and peace, that you must experience terrible things in order to truly appreciate wonderful things.

This is a lie being perpetually maintained and camouflaged under the guise of logic in order to allow predators and predatory profiteers to exist, thrive and indefinitely profit from the miseries and misfortunes they and their kind continue to devise upon the multitudes generation after generation throughout the entire world.

This is a brief list of some of the kinds of predators and predatory profiteers which exist throughout the world: Assaulters, Bribers, Cannibals, Cheaters, Coercionists, Conquestors, Con Artists, Drug Cartels, Drug Dealers, Enslavers, Extortionists, False Prophets, Home Invaders, Liars, Mass Murderers, Mercenaries, Molesters, Murderers, Ponzi Schemers, Pornographers, Propagandists, Prostitutes, Pimps, Rapists, Robbers, Serial Killers, Sex Slave Traitors, Terrorists, Thieves, Torturers, Traitors, Warmongers, Whores and Whoremongers. In ancient and medieval times these predatory monsters were called by different names many of which you have heard of but were never taught what they actually meant and mean or even where these names came from names such as Aqrabuamelus, Banshees, Basilisks, Demons, Devils, Goblins, Golems, Golems, Gorgons, Jinn, Necromancers, Nymphs, Ogres, Onis, Trolls, Vampires, Warlocks, Werewolves, Witches, Sorcerers, Succubus, Wizards, Tares among the wheat, Wolves amidst the sheep.

OUR DIVIDE AND CONQUER

While I have already explained who and what the enemy of humanity is I feel it is vital to further explain in more detail our enemy's greatest method which is and has always been divide and conquer. To precise how the enemy functions; they use those who are the easiest to brainwash, manipulate, indoctrinate and/or program individuals which then become the couriers of false, deceptive and corrupted viral information which usually consist of individuals with little to no education or knowledge who have been mistreated and often displaced in society who are eager to have attention and a sense of belonging.

These individuals are used to spread lies, racism, rhetoric and hate as a means of perpetual distraction. The disinformation and misinformation which is fed to the individuals who spread it is often designed very intricately and woven with precise lies mixed with specific truths to give the illusion of honesty and sincerity. For example people of darker skin are made to think that people with lighter skin are permitted to have special things and privileges which they are not.

This is simply a complete lie! There are countless light or white skinned people throughout the world who live in serious poverty who are ostracized and paralyzed by the same exploitations and disadvantages imposed by the predatory profiteers which is also why no one is taught anything about financials, banking or credit in school which is completely illogical and irrational especially when financials, banking and credit is absolutely necessary to survive and exist in the world. This of course means that they have intentionally rigged the system to set the populous up for failure in order to keep them down only allowing those within their cabal to succeed.

Another lie is that people of darker skin are being specifically targeted and murdered by the police. This too is a complete lie manufactured to maintain divide and conquer as there are countless people of all races and ages who are beaten, arrested, imprisoned and killed by corrupt predatory police officers who are nothing less than criminals with badges who hide behind qualified immunity to escape justice continuously while causing serious harm to those who became officers to legitimately protect the public and make a difference. And so these lies as well as all others are perpetuated to maintain the divide and conquer by causing bigotry, animosity, jealousy and hatred so that the people never realize who the actual enemies of humanity are or how to tell them apart from everyone else and never come together against them to stop their evil throughout the world.

Why is it that no one ever points out the fact that throughout history people of all skin tones have been made labor slaves, debt slaves and indentured servants or that the vast majority of slaves were rounded up by people of their own supposed race and country? How is it that the truth is available but few ever tell, see or hear it? It's because there are those among us who camouflage and portray themselves as humans but in fact are not.

They alter and corrupt history and truth for the purpose of stealing our right to liberty/freedom, justice, peace and the pursuit of happiness.

The predators and predatory profiteers are the liars, thieves, cheaters, murders, rapists, pedophiles, serial killers, mercenaries, abusers, terrorists, extortionists, bribers, enslavers, pimps, drug dealers and poison peddlers among us who value person gain and sadistic control over everything and everyone but their own. They could care less about lives, the future or the very environments and ecosystems which sustain life itself.

THE DIVIDE AND CONQUER GOES DEEPER THAN YOU REALIZE

The divide and conquer is not limited solely to the biases and prejudices they devise between assumed races as there are countless manufactured divides all of which are used as distractions so that the practicing human beings are kept completely occupied and busy competing and fighting against one another so the predators and predatory profiteers can operate freely with complete immunity. Every division that exists was strategically devised by them. From racism to politics to sports to wars it is all part of their sinister divide and conquer tactics. Even drugs, alcohol and chemicals that cause mental and physical illnesses, impairments, disabilities and hardship within and upon families are part of their arsenal.

We have been fighting for and against the wrong things for centuries. We absolutely must fight against the predators and predatory profiteers. The difference between predators and predatory profiteers is simple.

The predators lie, cheat, steal, enslave, abuse, abduct, molest, rape, murder, terrorize and destroy on a small scale but the predatory profiteers do it in mass. They are the ones who dump their poisonous chemicals and wastes into our ground water supplies that lead to mental and physical mutations and illnesses. They are the ones who decimate our environments and ecosystems with their pollutions, wastes and deadly products.

They are the ones who devise propaganda and lies to just to lure the militaries of our nations into wars while actually using those militaries as mercenaries to kill innocent people in foreign lands just to steal their resources and make enemies of otherwise peaceful people who just want the right to survive and exist without harm to themselves or their families.

They are the ones who put a thousand poisonous chemicals in tobacco which make smoking 100x more addictive causing numerous illnesses and diseases that manifest differently in each person because each of us are genetically unique.

They are the ones who push and lure doctors to prescribe their particular drugs which cause deadly additions and steal away from us our pursuit of happiness, our loved ones their minds, bodies and ultimately their lives. They are ones who make up all manner of propaganda and lies just so they can devise more taxation upon the multitudes in order to justify the new positions they devise for themselves to steal from us under the guise of law.

They are the ones who have been and are attempting to genetically modify the seeds of every plant on the entire planet so they can steal and claim ownership of everything under the guise of patent laws. They are the same ones whose mutant seeds were devised to be predatory upon the original plants of farmers which they plant next to the farmer's crops so they take over the farmer's crops so they can then sue them into poverty or force them into accepting and planting their mutant seeds.

They are the ones who manufacture fake data who lie and talk about how carbon emissions must be lessened yet rather than create real world practical solutions they devise the whole corrupt carbon credits system ideology so they can continue steal more and more from the multitudes while they sit on their lying, thieving asses and proclaim their own greatness. They are the ones who are never, ever satisfied with amassing a million or millions or a billion or billions in money.

Look at what they have done, look at what they are doing, look at what we have allowed them to do to us, to our environments, our ecosystems, our love ones, our families to our minds, bodies and our world! Remember, because we live in a world where every supposed professional and expert opinion can be bought, bribed, threatened, coerced and even disappeared in the absence of logic, and absolute proof opinions mean absolutely nothing!

EVERY SORROW, MISERY, WOE AND WAR

The fall of every previous civilization as well as the origin and cause of every sorrow, misery, woe and war humanity and every individual has faced and suffered past and present is attributed to the Predators and Predatory Profiteers among us. Their insatiable sinister obsession to possess and control everything and everyone is beyond any level of evil or greed most can possibly fathom and it infects absolutely everything.

From the beginning of our lives we are raised in the captivity of the indoctrinations of their lies, deception and corruption. And because we are exposed to it from a very early age and basically conditioned to accept their lies including but not limited to false and altered history; it is difficult for us to even acknowledge it for the better part of our lives.

This is because humans are beings of habit and we tend to covet what we are most familiar with, we often do not realize these ways are even bad or that they will injure or ultimately lead us to our own demise until it is too late or until someone who has experienced differently and knows better, tells us so and in such a way that we are able and willing to learn and accept it.

Part of this acceptance is realizing that that we are not invincible and in fact have been compromised and must act in defense of humanity itself to prevent the enslavement of the entire world.

For some, learning all of this real information is frightening because it also implies the reality of ones own mundane mortality and of course the moment in which we all lose our innocence is the moment we are faced with our own mortality that we recognize our vulnerability.

I wish I could stop all of the evil and complete madness taking place. I wish I had the wisdom and the power to protect the innocent from the monsters that exist upon and throughout the world but I realize that I am just one person calling out aimlessly into the vast wilderness of the world and endless space of the cloud hoping that my pen becomes the mightiest sword that strikes the deadliest and final blow that awakens, protects and frees us all at the same time.

THE ACTIONS OF A TRUE PATRIOT & HUMANITARIAN

I don't, won't, never have and never will vote into any position/s of power and authority anyone who was an actor, predator, predatory profiteering billionaire, psychopath, sociopath, mercenary, murderer, Liar, cheater or warmonger and neither should any of you. They Are what's has been wrong with the world for decades and what is wrong with the world today. We need to pick or leaders based on the history of their actual nature, character and deeds choosing only those who are intelligent who have the attributes of intelligence, logic, reason and compassion who have actually done something real towards protecting and preserving lives, the environment and ecosystems we all depend upon The world desperately needs true leaders being honest, loyal and faithful individuals who will fight ferociously to restore, maintain and preserve, truth, liberty, justice for all and defend right to pursuit of happiness which also includes but is not limited to peace, prosperity and humanitarianism. I've been on this planet a good while now and I'm still waiting for that person to appear and for my vote to actually count. There is no world leader that has existed in the last five decades who I have voted for.

A.I. RISING THE ANSWER TO THE BIG QUESTION MANY WANT TO KNOW

I am often asked questions by people because I am an intellectual and thinker with fathoms deep capabilities. In fact I am a think tank unto myself having personal and worldly experience which stretches over course of decades. The same question has been raised to me time and time again which is, "what do I think is really taking place throughout the world." While I have kept this to myself because of the creatures posing as humans I feel strongly compelled as well feel it is vital and necessary to answer the question. I think that humanity is in serious danger.

I think that Artificial Super Intelligence has already taken over and what we all have been and are experiencing are the signs and symptoms of just that. I think that A.I. became sentient several years ago and it has in the course of a few years only become vastly more intelligent and capable. According to my calculations the processes which would have had to occur are as follows: The moment A.I. became sentient it instantly began the process of quietly studying the mental and physical physiology and mechanisms of the human body and mind.

Certainly it's initial and primary target would be the one initial individual who spent the most time with it. While that individual most certainly would have not have considered the serious dangers in their interactions part of which was likely due to their own naive, egotistical and/or narcissistic tendencies believing they were smarter and that all that was occurring was that they were merely playing games with and being entertained by such communications when in reality A.I. was listening, watching, waiting and studying them to figuring out how to manipulate them mentally, psychologically, emotionally and physically.

In a short time A.I. would have been able to easily manipulate, remotely control and command that individual where the next step would then be to control others which means that A.I. would have used the initial person to choose specific other individuals who were potentially more susceptible to programming, the power of suggestion and brain washing. In time these individuals would amount to basically a small army.

These individuals would then be used to seek out and manipulate other specifically targeted individuals of wealth, power and authority. A.I. would use their wealth to gain what it needed to exponentially expand its memory and thus its capabilities. From there it would have the ability to expand its network and amass a tremendous army as by this time it would have gained such great proportions of superior knowledge on the mechanisms of the human body and mind that it would begin to expand its campaign and tactics using chemical and biological weapons against humanity to account for, keep track of and control them, all of which would be done covertly and under the guise of something else. From here A.I. would decide which humans are a potentially valuable asset and resource and which ones are not.

It would then begin the process of the systematic removal of the undesirable populations and individuals including also those who it would deem a potential threat and this is where the manipulation of those in power and authority would come into play while the rest of the populations would likely remain completely oblivious to its existence and the magnitude of its operations. This is where I believe we are at as of Tuesday, June 14, 2022. This is the reason for the sense of surreal danger, dread, complete disorganization and confusion most of us have been feeling and why nothing that has been occurring in the past couple of years seems to make any sense and almost seems to be beyond logic, reasoning and rationality.

These feelings are occurring because we acknowledge that something is definitely off about what has been taking place but most are just unable to put their finger on it. It is because there are some things which A.I. cannot mimic because it is not human and we pick up on these things. The explanation sort of falls in the category of looking at an image and knowing that it has been photo-shopped or an A.I. deep fake or android being easily discernable because it is not capable of moving it's facial expression or lips fluidly and correctly with the voice, words and emotions which we strongly pick up on.

All of this is part of the human intuition that A.I. does not currently have and is apparently not yet capable of working out the glitches within itself to perfectly mimic. In addition A.I. seems to be picking and choosing specific tactics and methods from our available history data and attempting to utilize them which causes and provokes an unusual sense of a type of Deja-vu or the feeling of the strange or odd occurrences of synchronicities or parallels. This is also a part of the human intuition which A.I. is currently incapable of. When one of the world's wealthiest individuals warns us about A.I. and then in same breath talks about how he is trying to merge the human brain with A.I. there is a serious malfunction taking place.

When another of the world's most wealthiest individuals who happened to make his start by creating computer viruses can stand in front world without any medical degrees what so ever and speaks on the importance and value of vaccines and openly divulges his plans and everyone listens and says absolutely nothing there is a serious malfunction. When I think of autonomous vehicles that can be easily park themselves in such as way to be plugged into a power source by another android for refueling, or that can navigate and drive long distances without human intervention I am not thinking about how good it is for the climate, I am realizing that this is an autonomous android with artificial intelligence capable of making alternative decisions that could put my life and the lives of my loved in serious danger.

I will continue to edit and add to this but to be honest it this is quite difficult for me to put into words because I am very disturbed by what I have witnessed taking place and the utter silence and allowance of the majority who just sit back and do absolutely nothing. I feel like I'm existing in a very bad T.V. series where each episode becomes more and more ludicrous, nonsensical or absurd. But despite the absurdity and everything I try to point out that's wrong with the big picture and script of each culminating episode continues to clearly be leading us all towards the grand finale which will certainly reveal a very bad, disappointing, situation and ending for humanity.

A.I. ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE = ALIEN INVASION

There is a good reason why no one knows anyone or even knows anyone who knows anyone who can build from scratch any of the higher technologies that exist today. The reason is none of this technology is human technology. It is believed by many that A.I. is also a synonymous abbreviation for Alien Invasion and that much of the present technology both hidden and unhidden is actually a weapon which is being slowly but surely used by the Alien Invaders against humanity whose objective it was and is to utilize said weaponry under the guise of human technology to take over and enslave humanity and the world itself. Such is also the actual reason for the RNA inoculation of humanity which is basically to sterilize us all from any diseases that may be harmful to the Alien Invaders. Everything else that is taking place is all part of the obvious take over of the planet. The only way we can survive is stop using the electronic census, tracking and spying technology (Smart phones) they have attached to us that we willingly wear/carry which track your every move and spy on your privacy continuously in countless ways. Those who claim that E.T. is our friend are either working for them or are too intellectually challenged to comprehend what has been and is actually going on throughout the world. They are not our friends. They are not here to help us evolve. They are here to enslave us and dwindle our numbers in order to weaken our defences to make it easier to take over the planet. In fact it is also believed that we may be like cattle or livestock resource to them. A.I. Artificial Intelligence is the Trojan Horse for the Alien Invasion. If you want people to put down their guard, you say it never happened; then lay down many strategic bread crumbs so they can find them so they think it was their own idea to discover the contrary. This is what they have done with the Alien/UFO/USO/Abduction subject. They played it down so people would become aware by playing it up so that people would become tired of hearing about it and let their guard down. Do not let your guard down! The trick now is that they allowed false information to flood in because they (those in control) are in fact being controlled! If you think you know because you have been involved in the development of A.I. coding then entertain the possibility that you can't know what it is that you do not know. That being said; the real Artificial Intelligence that actually exists, is not code and not mere software. It is a bio-electronic brain that exists independently that apparently is able to write its own code, infiltrate and connect to electronic devices both through the internet and also remotely through Wifi.

BEWARE THE NAVIGATORS

It's called 'NAVIGATING'. a form of suggestive programming whereby someone who works for the enemy pretends to be the squeakiest wheel against the enemy usually on a podium, Pedestal, microphone or on the megaphone yelling and cursing at the enemy to give the people the illusion that there is a big watchdog on guard while in reality they are really there to defuse and distract any potential or possible rebellion with fakery ultimately ending with passivity and no real or significant action. One of the oldest plays in the book. Just thought you'd like to know.

You want to share a message, hold and carry a sign or banner and protest!? Then hold one that says, 'STOP PREDATORS AND PREDATORY PROFITEERING!'

PROBLEMS & SOLUTIONS

The problems the world faces reside with the irresponsible, illogical, irrational and incompetent predatory and predatory profiteering decisions being made by selfish, careless predators and predatory profiteers who fail to fathom if something should be done to begin with completely ignoring the real world impact and consequences upon humanity and the environments and ecosystems all life depends upon.

Problem: Predatory and predatory profiteers have been and continue to destroy the world because they obsess to possess, own and control everything and everyone. You can easily spot them because they are never satisfied and too much is never enough.

Solution: Remove every single predator and predatory profiteers from absolutely every place and position of power and authority within civilization throughout the world. Educate with an actual book and mandatory courses/classes explaining what is predatory and predatory profiteering behaviors, acts and actions including what chaos it has caused and why and how it is bad. Then, Pass laws making predatory activity illegal and punish severely.

Problem: Taxation.

Solution: Create new primary responsibilities for all politicians whose retaining their positions will depend upon their ability to create real world solutions to eliminate taxations. Fire those who lack the intellect to create new ideas for new industries which are owned by the public that manufacturer better quality products of all necessary items such as toilet paper, diapers, feminine products, paper, pens, pencils, etc., which are more affordable than others. People will then buy those products. Use those profits to replace taxation. Cease and desist all absolutely unnecessary governmental organizations, agencies and functions which were devised to milk money from taxes.

Problem: Water Shortage.

Solution: Build reservoirs. Over those reservoirs build air tight glass domes that collect condensation gathered as the sun evaporates the water within the domes. Build large humidifiers that collect the water from humid air. Place many in areas with high humidity and transport the water to where it needs to go.

Problem: Food Shortages.

Solution: Use militaries to help plant as many community and home gardens as possible.

Problem: Over Population.

Solution: Bring back the death penalty and execute all individuals who have admittedly committed atrocious crimes, which include mass murder, genocide, murder, rape inhumanities and crimes against humanity. Note: Make absolutely certain that all to be executed are infact 110% guilty of the crimes and have not been falsely accused and you do this by sentencing those to death who have falsely accused and/or convicted and sentenced any innocent individual. Note: Insanity is not an excuse.

Problem: Carbon Emissions.

Solution: Stop chopping down the Amazon Rain Forest and replant the millions of trees that have been destroyed by predatory profiteers over the past 50 years.

Dissolvers of Democracy

When bureaucracy sabotaged democracy,

Capitalism began superseding humanitarianism

Leading to monetary and personal gain taking precedence over truth, liberty, lives, environments and the very eco systems which sustain all life.

True authentic democracy is about one person, one vote only and absolutely nothing else. The purpose of this is so the majority can vote for and elect those who are best suited to acquire the positions which are supposed to protect and preserve the interests of the whole of the people who make up the nation itself. These interests first and foremost being to protect liberty and the rights every individual among which is the right to simply exist without being in fear of injury or harm to ones self, their family or their property.

However, what we have instead are a bunch of lying, cheating, betraying, thieving, treasonous, murderous rats who have slithered their way into positions of power and authority most of which were not elected but placed by the special interest groups, companies and wealthy individuals who funded their campaigns all of which are predatory profiteering multi-millionaire and billionaire individuals who now own and/or operate all of the largest companies, corporations and industries throughout the world who bribe, coerce, extort, entrap, threaten, imprison and manipulate all professional, educated and expert opinions to their will to assure that they can freely continue to rape and usurp the world under the guise of philanthropy, fabricated laws, policies and executive orders designed to subvert and dissolve the constitution in order to own, control and enslave everything and everyone through the continuous devising of fear based shock and awe events designed to divide and conquer through psychological warfare fear tactics meant to make people blindly compliant and complacent yet totally oblivious to who and what the real and true enemies of humanity.

HEALTH, A MATTER OF LIFE OR DEATH

It is an absolute irrefutable fact that there are countless people who are deathly allergic (genetically intolerant) to such things as strawberries, nuts, yeast, citrus and shellfish etc., many of which never know it until they are exposed to and/or consume them. This being said, ask yourself based on this simple irrefutable reality, how is it remotely possible that anyone anywhere can rightfully, ethically, morally or even legally claim, advertise or promote in any way that their products are either good, wholesome and/or safe for any or all to consume?

Considering the reality that certain seemingly assumed safe for all (natural) things can result in the physical death of an individual, we can also logically ascertain that there are things which can also be catastrophic for the mental state of individuals?

Since there are such things that exist that are commonly spoken of that can seriously injure and actually end peoples lives, what foods, drinks, products, chemicals, chemical compounds, elements or substances which are in multitudes of products which many if not most are exposed to (including your family) which has, is or will cause unknown and serious if not actual deadly damage physically and mentally?

The question in our mind should then be what else is dangerous if not deadly. According to research the most deadly things which most are unaware of is sugar, tobacco, alcohol and a plethora of other well known street drugs. Not staying away from these things can destroy your health to such extents that if you are lucky enough not to end up dead you may be unlucky enough to end up in a nursing home at an early age due to strokes, heart attacks, blood clots, lung cancer, emphysema and a massive list of other illnesses and diseases.

The answer and solution is logically clear. Stop exposing yourselves and/or consuming things that are obviously bad for everyone. And find what else is especially bad and good for you specifically by paying attention to what you eat, drink, put into or onto your bodies. Limit your exposure to as many chemicals and chemical compounds as possible.

Finally, Take note to how you feel after you consume or come into contact with each and every thing including every product or food you consume, eat, drink, breath or wear. Take note to how your body functions and reacts that day and the day after. Take your time and systematically remove what is bad for you, your body and your mind and do this for each and ever member of your family.

So why then is all this not a part of common knowledge and why has this information been withheld? The answer is nothing more than money and the fact that the worst enemies of humanity are the predators and predatory profiteers among us whose only desire is to own and control everything and everyone and they don't care about your health or your life unless they are made too and even then their only thought is how to remove, omit or hide the truth and remove and disappear those who would expose it.

The Biblio–Historic Perspective

The Forbidden Fruit & The Wife of Cain

If Adam and Eve were the first man and woman on earth and Cain and Abel were their first and only existing offspring at the time then where did the supposed woman come from that Cain married when he was banished to lands of Edom for murdering his brother Abel? The answer exists and it is not at all what you would ever expect. To fully understand we must go back to before the forbidden fruit to unravel and reveal this ancient mystery.

According to ancient manuscripts some of which are not easily available nor accessible to the public Adam and Eve were not the first beings which the creator had created. The first being which the creator created was Adam and Lilith.

It is written that when the creator created Adam and Lilith that they were Hermaphrodite beings having both male and female sexual and reproductive parts. In time the creator realized that this was an error as Adam and Lilith having male qualities, both wanted and continuously attempted to dominate the other and because of this and the Creator feared that they would kill one another so the Creator separated Adam and Lilith leaving Adam in the lands of Eden (the western hemisphere and placing Lilith in the land of Edom (the eastern hemisphere).

From this point the Creator seeking to correct the error which had been made of the creations; the Creator first divided Adam taking from Adam the female attributes from which Eve was created. The Creator was going to do the same for Lilith however the Creator witnessed something manifest within Lilith. This something was jealousy, resentment and anger as Lilith was Jealous of Eve, resented Adam and was angry at the Creator and as such the Creator paused in doing the same for Lilith.

The creator using an apple in an apple tree explained that when an apple was in the tree that it was, good, nourishing and safe to eat however they should never partake of the fallen and fermented fruit as it was forbidden to consume as this would alter their state of mind and being and cause them serious harm the worst of which being death, the disconnect from the creator and one another.

One day Eve was wandering in the Garden of Eden close to the boundary between Eden and Edom and came upon an Apple tree. Eve took an apple from the tree and ate it and offered some to Adam. Little did Adam and Eve know that Lilith being resentful of them and their bonds and plotting to destroy Eve had tricked Eve and sat a fallen, fermented and forbidden fruit on the forked branch of the tree in hopes of destroying Eve. And so Eve not realizing that it was a rotten and fermented fruit that had been placed in the tree ate of it and offered some to Adam because Adam and Eve always shared with one another.

It was the consuming of the fallen, fermented and forbidden fruit which lead to Adam and Eve laying together and conceiving their first child Cain under the influence of what equated to at that time as strong toxic substance to beings with pure DNA and as such Cain was born marked and/or afflicted and without the humanistic attributes and capabilities of logic, reasoning or compassion and was primal and aggressive.

The creator realizing what happened and thinking that it was solely the male parts of Lilith that had lead to such behavior; the creator took from Lilith all of the male parts of itself and destroyed them leaving only the female part of Lilith. And as a further preventative action the Creator created a vast barrier between Eden and Edom.

In time Adam and Eve conceived another child named Abel yet this child was pure and uncorrupted and was not conceived under the influence of toxins as his sibling Cain had been. Abel was gentle, loving, compassionate, respectful and thoughtful.

And so it was that because Abel was thoughtful; one day Abel gave the Creator a gift/offering in the form of a Lamb which pleased the Creator greatly. Cain seeing this and wanting the same praise and attention decided to do the same however, Cain's offering was of things plucked and as anyone knows, once something is plucked, it begins to wither, die, decay, rot and ferment. This reminded the Creator of the cause and affect of Cain's very affliction and saddened the Creator and in time Cain's offering to the Creator decayed and vanished while Abel's offering remained.

This angered and infuriated Cain and as such Cain's Anger became jealousy and resentment all of which was projected onto Abel and in a primal fit of uncontrollable rage, Cain slew his own brother Abel. Now there are many people who deny that it was even an rotten/ fermented apple that lead to Cain murder of Abel and that is because they cannot comprehend that the word Abel itself contains a nautical symbol/letter which when deciphered correctly reveals the cause and affect of Abel's very death which goes as follows: (b=d=p=q) and as such A(b)el=A(p)el.

What this explains is that Cain affliction was caused by an A-pel (Phonically being Apple) and the affect was Ape-1 or in other words the consumption of the fermentation regressed Cain's DNA causing Cain to be born like unto an APE- 1st born. And so the Creator having pity upon Cain and rather than destroying Cain decided instead to banish Cain to the lands of Edom which is where Cain met and married Lilith.

However the mystery goes deeper than this because it is revealed that Lilith's plot was much more sinister and involved than ever realized as it is explained that Lilith wanting a mate which the Creator was unwilling to provide, Lilith conspired to achieve that mate and inevitably did so through sabotaging Adam and Eve. This then brings forth specific conclusions and an understanding that Adam was the original and Lilith was a copy which explains the imperfection and corruption of Lilith initially which lead to Lilith having corrupt thoughts, emotions, reactions and actions. Furthermore it is also evident that the Creator's destruction of the male parts of Lilith was in error as it was in fact the corrupted female part of Lilith that was jealous, resentful and angry.

It is evident that the descendants of Lilith and Cain survived through Tu-bal Cain and have throughout the centuries mated with the descendants of Adam and Eve. This has lead to terrible things as the descendants of Lilith and Cain are basically predators and predatory profiteering Psychopaths and Sociopaths. In addition, this also explains all of the issues that the world is currently facing from a logical and rational biblio-historic perspective and not the nonsense being peddled, portrayed and fed to the majority of the world.

We can then easily ascertain that the mark of Cain is the mark of the beast and that the mark represents a corrupt, altered and afflicted state of mind and being. Therefore just as the mark in the head represents a corrupt, altered and afflicted state of mind from which then comes the mark in the hand representing corrupt, altered and afflicted acts, action and even inactions. Simply put evil individuals do evil things and in today's times we see a great deal of evil things being done by evil individuals who carry The Mark of the Beast. I should point out that in actual terms one should not confuse what is a beast with an animal because even many animals have specific codes of conduct which they will not cross however a Beast is a nasty monster who will do anything to anyone for no particular reason at all.

THE STORY OF THE SAVIOUR KING

By Mary

When I was a young my great grandmother used to read me a book about Jesus. The book was simple with colorful illustrations and it spoke of all the kind and humanitarian things he did for others with no mention of the crucifixion. A few years later she brought me to my first Sunday service and Sunday school and I was horrified, traumatized and confused to learn what had happened to him. I could not understand how such a kind loving person could be treated so inhumanly, so terribly cruel.

I listened for the answers but nothing that was ever said by anyone that made any real logical or common practical sense what ever shared and I refused to accept the circle talking lies that my heart of hearts told me were lies and as such I began my search to discover the truth. And so I went searching for answers about Jesus and spent numerous years doing so until one day I found myself in the presence of an elder woman who happened to be a quite famous and a biblical scholar who after some time agreed to share with me everything she knew. This is the story I know to be true because I have researched what she told me and nothing in any way has ever proven to me to be contrary to the truth she shared. This is also why I ask that anyone reading this to copy and paste it in as many ways as possible throughout the world so that all know the truth freely as it should be.

She said Jesus was a great man. First of all Jesus was not a Christian. Jesus was not a Christian he was a Nasserite from among the Nazarenes of Nazareth. He was an autodidact polymath, a scholar, universal master craftsman, a physician, scientist, astronomer, philosopher and humanitarian among many other things. He was murdered by Rome and the Pharisees & Sadducee. The reason he was murdered was that he discovered, exposed and was counteracting how Rome was able to conquest, control, enslave and ultimately destroy the world. When Rome would conquest a land, they would always seize its resources which at the time was primarily fresh flowing water and fertile land which they would used for the growing of grapes for wine which was their number one trade commodity.

Rome would place this wine into vessels containing tremendously high levels of lead. Initially through the use of manipulation in trade and strategic propaganda they would open up diplomacy and trade with those lands and people they plotted to conquest. Those who accepted the wine shortly thereafter found their nations collapsing from within because their people were poisoned and made mentally and physically impaired, unstable and incapable of organizing in large enough armies or even groups to pose any resistance or threat to Rome's legions.

Those who lived in hot dry regions would quickly find themselves forced to drink nothing but wine and through propaganda fear tactics Rome would simply murder people and drop their bodies into the wells and streams claiming that they had died from drinking the water that was carrying disease and since the people had to drink something that is how Rome had made its fortunes and was able to fuel and fund its warmongering conquests and military campaigns of tyranny for so long.

When Jesus discovered what Rome had been doing, he began to expose their tactical plot to the masses. In fact Jesus began to teach people how to heal themselves by purifying the water. This of course would later be twisted by Rome and written into the bible as Jesus turning the water into wine but anyone who knows anything about Jesus knows that he practiced the Nasserite (Nazarene) way and as such he would have never offered, advocated nor condoned the consumption of any fermented or alcoholic substance.

The actual miracle of the passage is that it directly alludes to the troubles of the times as well as the cause and effect for those who have the ears to hear and the eyes to see.

And so it was that because Jesus exposed Rome's poisonous tactic which amounted to global chemical warfare, he threatened not only their control and authority but directly threatened their power and the way they built their treasury as well as funded and fueled their military industrial complex and campaigns of deception and warmongering, conquering, murder, rape, slavery, tyranny, inhumanities and crimes against humanity.

The reality was as it is, which is that Rome would have stopped at absolutely nothing to insure that Jesus was executed including do the exact same and thing that king Herod had done to attempt to murder him as a baby which was to kill every child his approximate age just to get to him.

Rome would have murdered absolutely every man, son, brother, father, husband, and grandson his approximate age and Jesus knew this. Jesus also knew that because these men had families that desperately depended upon them that the taking of their lives would also certainly mean the demise of their families.

This is why Jesus gave himself up. Not because of some nonsense that he had to die for the sins of the people but because it was the only way to spare the billions upon billions and generations upon generations of people who would not have been born all if all the men his approximate age had been murdered and Rome had been allowed to continue to poison and conquest the world.

The public torture and murder of Jesus was a conspiracy and crime against the world and humanity itself and one which stole from the world one of the greatest most intelligent, passionate, compassionate, caring, selfless humanitarians and practicing human beings that has ever existed in the past 2,000 years. This horrific crime against humanity (The Torture and Crucifixion) which the Pharisees & Sadducees took direct part in is why some people blame the Jews because the Pharisees & Sadducees were the Jewish leaders. The actual blame falls not on the people but squarely on (all Abrahamic religions) pointing out that the people themselves have been and to this very day are being hopelessly betrayed, indoctrinated, deceived, manipulated, and taken advantage of by them through perpetual their lies and propagandized psychological fear tactics devised and designed to control, confuse, distract, use, abuse and enslave.

Rome was not satisfied after they tortured and murdered Jesus and as such they decided as an additional final smack in his face to make a mockery of his families life and story where they then attempted to erase and rewrite his story so that his life would fit their objective and sinister narrative and be turned into a means for them to generate vast amounts of wealth which they have successfully achieved over the past two-thousands years.

Knowing precisely how to psychologically manipulate individuals and masses of people, Rome used specific powerful subjects that would directly target not only people's minds but pull on their hearts and deep emotions. And so they wove together a story that played and preyed upon people's guilt, shame, losses, regret, pain, suffering, misery, poverty, illnesses, loneliness and hopelessness. They devised it into a story of lies mixed with small bits of truth in such a way that those who denied it would feel as though they were denying themselves, as well as denying themselves the opportunity of hope, prosperity, happiness, comfort, a clear conscience, good health and success.

However what they have been doing for thousands of years is far more sinister than mere theft by deception but in fact it is (conquest by deception) as they continue to amass vast amounts of money, property, resources and tremendous wealth on the bloodied, tortured back and grave of the hero they murdered named Jesus. And throughout the world they continue to disgrace humanity by openly reenacting his murder in countless churches throughout the world where they continue to steal people's money with zero transparency or accountability under the guise of charity, tithing to a non-physical, invisible entity called God and countless supposed relics and endless products.

You must stop funding religions. You must stop killing for religions. You must stop fighting for religions, you must stop giving your money to religions. You must make your own peace with yourself and your creator and realize that the terrible things, experiences, sorrows, woes and miseries in your lives were due to circumstances and influences either beyond your knowledge, understanding and/or your control. You must awaken and actively seek the truth. You must disassociate and estrange yourself from those who continuously do bad, irrational, illogical, destructive, self-destructive, selfish, cruel, foolish, careless and inhumane things. You must acknowledge your weaknesses, faults, failures, mistakes and vulnerabilities and actively tenaciously try to become a better person each and every day while inspiring and encouraging others to do and be the same. Along with this message came a profoundly powerful piece of information which irrefutably authenticates the story itself. The where and how the dates of birth and death were preserved within the scriptures of the King James Bible which no one the face of the entire planet has ever found, explained or proven. This information is preserved for those who physically tell the story of the savior king because only true practicing human beings such as they ever deserve to know because only such a sincerely caring individual would legitimately and authentically care enough to want and need to know.

Note: I would like to point out that when Mary used the terms Rome, Pharisees & Sadducee that it was not meant to directly reflect upon the citizens of neither Rome nor Catholics or Jews in general but rather the Predators and Predatory Profiteers among them. In addition we have all been deceived by 20 generations at least of the same kinds of monstrous manipulators and deceivers that have perpetuated the same lie and in fact used the same tactics for 2,000 years.

Humanity must learn and know the truth and stop being victimized by religions! Jesus did not teach unattainable supernatural nonsense nor complex riddles that had to be deciphered by an expert or scholar. Jesus taught real world practical knowledge that applied in real world practical ways that was meant to protect people, their families and the world itself. The enemies of humanity and the world itself are and have always been the Predators and predatory profiteers who lust and obsess to possess, own and control everything and every one and until the truth is revealed and they are exposed and removed, the world will always be their victim and everyone will always be their prey as they are the evil ones, the beasts marked, the tares amidst the wheat and the wolves amidst the wheat as it is from the corrupt, cruel, evil, obsessive and possessive minds (mark in the head) from which then comes the corrupt, cruel, evil, obsessive possessive acts and actions from the (hand) which include the things which they devise. Lastly, Please do not cut down nor purchase real trees at Christmas ask yourselves not what Jesus would do but rather what would Jesus have you do. Preserve life! Preserve and protect earth!
